

★★ 英語 『できる日本語 初中級』 「できること」 一覧

L1	Become able to politely introduce yourself to people you meet for the first time and make inquiries that leave a good impression.	1	You can make inquiries about part-time jobs and ask and answer simple questions at interviews.
		2	You can talk about your hobbies and life in Japan with people you meet for the first time at your part-time jobs and interest groups.
L2	Become able to talk about products in stores and menus in restaurants with friends and shop while talking to shop assistants.	3	You can talk with your friends about how the items you wish to buy look like, ask shop assistants for information and make your own decisions.
		4	You can converse with your friends and the staff while eating at restaurants etc.
L3	Become able to talk about your goals and plans and ask advice from people around you about what path to choose.	5	You can talk about your reasons for coming to Japan and goals and plans, etc., in the future.
		6	You can talk about your future plans and ask people around you questions.
L4	Become able to share information on the town where you live and take action based on such information in order to enjoy your life in Japan.	7	You can ask and answer questions about the facilities and shops in the town where you live.
		8	You can give directions for others and ask others for directions when you are lost.
L5	Become able to explain situations, if simple ones, that you have suddenly encountered and respond to such situations.	9	You can explain your problems. Also, you can explain the characteristics of something you lost and how you lost it.
		10	You can simply explain circumstances, make requests and apologize when encountering difficult situations at train stations or on the street.
L6	Become able to make preparations before going on a trip such as collecting information and consulting with others.	11	You can state where you want to travel and the reasons.
		12	You can talk about what to do before traveling.
L7	Become able to enjoy interacting with Japanese people when visiting their house while considering the situation there and the relationship with them.	13	You can use polite Japanese language to people you meet for the first time.
		14	You can simply explain how to make food you know well.
L8	Become able to express your feeling of gratitude about something someone has done for you that made you happy.	15	You can talk about your experience with someone being kind to you and offer your help for someone familiar to you.
		16	You can talk to other people about the time someone gave you assistance and thank someone who helped you.
L9	Become able to converse with co-workers in order to work happily within group while considering the people around you.	17	You can receive an explanation from your superiors about the rules at your part-time job and explain them to your junior co-workers.
		18	You can call out to each other in order to work smoothly.

L10	Become able to communicate difficult situations you experienced during a trip to others and simply explain the scenery and buildings you saw at tourist spots.	19	You can simply explain situations and difficulties when you are involved with unexpected and unfortunate situations during a trip.
		20	You can simply explain your current circumstances and things in front of you.
L11	Become able to talk about your life and the difficulties you have now in Japan with Japanese people in your local area and participate in local activities.	21	You can talk about changes in your habits and difficulties you are experiencing.
		22	You can communicate information you have heard from someone and cheer at sports games.
L12	Become able to exchange information with people around you about how you maintain your health and what you do when you don't feel well.	23	You can talk about symptoms, causes and coping techniques when you don't feel well.
		24	You can talk about what you regularly do and use in order to maintain your health.
L13	Become able to express your opinion about something interesting you saw on television or on the street and talk about your related experiences.	25	You can simply express your opinion while referring to your experiences when you were a child.
		26	You can talk about the influence which your childhood education has on you now.
L14	Become able to explain events and customs from your country so that Japanese people around you can learn more about your country.	27	You can simply explain events and related matters in your country and ask someone about theirs.
		28	You can seek advice for choosing presents considering the customs of giving presents and the receiver's preference.
L15	Become able to communicate and converse with people around you about what you researched and considered with your own questions about the news and events which interest you in your everyday life.	29	You can listen to others and express your thoughts in discussions.
		30	You can make a speech about information you have researched regarding a certain topic and your own opinions about it.